Other Fine Products...

Did you know that Copper is a natural antimicrobial? The EPA has registered 300+ copper alloys as antimicrobial materials. It has been scientifically proven that copper kills more than 99.9% of disease causing bacteria and can be used to make surfaces that are frequently touched much more sanitary.

Hi...
The Hood is gorgeous and my kitchen is almost done, I will send you pictures so you can show everyone how beautiful your work is.
Kathy

The hood arrived this morning. They just un-crated it and it looks beautiful. Hope you took a picture. Thanks so much and Happy New Year.
Linda

We just received our hood and it is just beautiful. Your service and response couldn't have been more responsive and appreciated, as it has since the beginning. Feel free to share my experience and email with anyone.
